	QUALITY AND ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY		Edición: 02
			Fecha: 15/01/2021
			Page 1 of 1

DHV Technology establishes a Quality and Environment Policy with the aim of exceeding customers and employees expectations in all DHV activities.

The high level of market demand which DHV Technology is oriented, forces to work under rigorous quality requirements and respect for the environment in all its activities, based on continuous improvement, the effectiveness of its business processes, products and services that are described below:

- The design, manufacture and qualification of fixed or deployable photovoltaic solar panels and power subsystem for aerospace business devoted to cover a demanding market where the quality and the reliability are the main requirements.
- The design, manufacture and qualification of renewable energy solutions willing to deliver to DHV's customers non-conventional ways of energy production as clear example of the environmental commitment of DHV with a sustainable future.
- Consulting services in the field of knowledge management and company intangibles relative to R&D activities.

DHV's main commitments are:

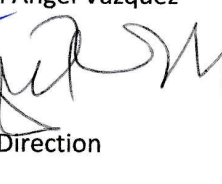

- To achieve the commitment of the continuous improvement of the quality and environmental management to improve the environmental performance and our activities.
- To participate and join all the employees in the environmental and quality management by engaging with them with the enforcement of existing policy.
- To ensure that the requirements, necessities and expectations of DHV's customers are understood and well managed inside of the company.
- To provide enough resources and infrastructures to carry out all the requirements, necessities and expectations of DHV's customers.
- To measure and communicate inside the company the level of satisfaction of DHV's customers.
- To make quarterly reviews of all the indicators of DHV's processes and quality objectives for indentifying appropriate effective and efficient evolutions.
- To develop DHV's activities in sustainable ways with environmental, taking into account:
 - To ensure the compliance with existing legal requirements and environmental rules applicable to the company and with other obligations to which the company will be subscribe concerning environmental issues.
 - To manage our waste in the most respectful way with the environment and minimize the generation of them.
 - To prevent pollution and minimize the impact of our activities, as well as a sustainable use of resources.
 - To communicate to all organization the commitment to the protection of the environmental, the correct waste management and the continuous improvement of environmental management system.

DHV TECNOLOGÍA ESPECIAL AVANZADA MALAGUEÑA, S.L.
Avda. Juan López Peñalver, 21
N.I.F. B-93291474
29590 Málaga

Málaga, 15th january 2021

Vicente Díaz / Miguel Ángel Vázquez

DHV Technology Direction